Response to The Seas by Samantha Hunt

She is really and truly

Only fit for flight.

The wings can be confused for fins, which can be confused in sight.

An elemental of a Breeze of Wind

An elemental of a Gale-force of Air.

An elemental of a Flurry found around and inside her hair.

Tangled

Twisted

Wrapped

Wild

She burns in fire

She drowns in water

And most importantly

She gets stuck in Earth
